

Cambridge Historical International Relations Conference, 10 May 2024

Alison Richard Building, 7 West Road, room SG1/2, Cambridge

9:50pm

Coffee & Tea

10:20am

Welcome: Jason Sharman

10:30am

Session 1 (Chair: Jason Sharman):

Megan Donaldson (UCL) “Negotiating Extradition”

Giovanni Mantilla (Cambridge) “Success and Failure in UN Security Council Enlargement during Decolonization”

Sinja Graf (LSE) “International Law and Colonial Reparations: Germany's Chronopolitics of Deflection”

Hazem Kandil (Cambridge) “Forever Wars Last Forever”

12:15pm

(Lunch)

1:30pm

Session 2 (Chair: Alena Drieschova)

Anahita Arian (Cambridge) “Re-Orienting the Gaze: The Eroticization of English Women, 'Oriental' Perceptions of English Gender Relations, and Safavid Epistemic Agency”

Or Rosenboim (Bologna) “Displacement and Belonging: Rethinking Global Migrations through Family Histories”

Ulas Ince (SOAS) “Capitalism and Race in Imperial Perspective: Beyond Methodological Atlanticism”

Tomas Wallenius (Oxford) “Capitalism and Modern International Order. Evidence from Foreigners' Property Rights”

3:15pm

Coffee Break

3:45pm

Concluding Round-Table

Duncan Bell (Cambridge)

Halvard Leira (Norwegian Institute of International Affairs)
Yale Ferguson (Rutgers)
Ayse Zarakol (Cambridge)
Jeremy Adelman (Cambridge)

5pm
(Drinks)

The conference is funded by the Department of Politics and International Studies, University of Cambridge and King's College, Cambridge